

Mystery Writing Workshop Tour

Do you have aspiring mystery writers among your patrons? Then consider adding your library to this exciting tour! This summer I will be traveling the state of Kansas and offering a FREE, one-hour workshop. I am only charging mileage (56 cents per mile) to get from library to library.

Participants will learn:

- Elements, structure, and terminology of a mystery novel.
- How to create suspects, settings, and sleuths.
- The process for writing a manuscript and acquiring a publisher.
